THE SINGER NEW FAMILY
SEWING MACHINE.
THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either FAMILY USE or MANUFACTURING PURPOSES, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellencies is no longer considered necessary.
THE LETTER "A" FAMILY MACHINE,
hitherto manufactured by this Company, has gained and maintained the world over, and for years past, an unparalleled reputation and sale. But notwithstanding the excellence of this Machine, we have now to announce that it has been superseded by our
which has been over two years in preparation, and which has been brought to perfection regardless of TIME, LABOR or EXPENSE, and is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the BEST SEWING MACHINE IN EXISTENCE.
The machine in question is SIMPLE, COMPACT, DURABLE and BEAUTIFUL. It is QUIET, LIGHT RUNNING, and CAPABLE OF PERFORMING A RANGE AND VARIETY OF WORK never before attempted upon a single machine—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the VERY FINEST and COARSEST materials, and any thing between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for hemming, braiding, cording, tucking, quilting, felling, trimming, binding, etc., are novel and practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this machine.

We feel assured in calling the attention of the public to this Stove, that we have a Stove superior to anything in the market.
A large class of diseases arise from the poisonous gases and vapors saturating our food during the baking process, and infecting the atmosphere of the room.
We have met this demand by furnishing a Stove with an Oven into which there is a Constant Flow of Fresh Heated Air,
Combining with and carrying those gases and vapors up the chimney.

CANCERS CAN BE CURED!
DR. L. CHASE,
(LATE OF PORTLAND)
THE CELEBRATED
INDIAN OPATHY, CANCER & HUMOR
DOCTOR,
HAVING purchased the residence of H. A. Wood, 54 Hammond Street, Bangor, Maine, would be happy to be consulted by all who are afflicted with Cancers, Cancer Humors, Tumors, Scrofula, Leprosy, Salt Rheum, Fits, Neuralgia, Bronchial Affections, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Sick Headache, Liver Diseases, Female Weaknesses, Piles, Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Diseases of the Kidneys, Stiff Joints, Gravel, Diabetes, &c., &c.
DR. CHASE has practiced in his profession for sixteen years, and in that time has spent two years in Florida and Cuba, for the purpose of gaining a correct knowledge of the most efficient remedies used by the various tribes of Indians of that country, and by great expense has gained many valuable secrets which have heretofore been unknown to the world.
In Cancer he claims superiority over all other Physicians of the age, for he never fails to perform a cure when taken in a proper stage.
His mode of curing Cancers is by the application of a plaster, which is strictly vegetable, and will have no effect upon the healthy flesh; and in no case uses a knife, as does Dr. Greene, of Boston.
He also boldly asserts that he can tell every individual their disease and location of their pains, and describe their feelings in almost every case, more minutely than they can possibly themselves.
Dr. Chase is not a Clairvoyant but conducts his examinations on a strictly scientific principle, and will challenge any professed medium for a test examination.
Office hours from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Examinations free. Office at residence No. 54 Hammond Street.

DOVER, N. H., Nov. 23.

The upper part of City Hall building including the armories of the Strafford Guards and Light Battery, and the City Hall, was burned at 2 o'clock this morning. The court room, county and city offices in the lower part of the building were injured by water. Loss $10,000; no insurance.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 22.

A special despatch to the Avalanche of today, from Little Rock, says:

A resolution has been introduced in the Arkansas Legislature, calling on the Governor for information in regard to the attempt to overthrow the present State government. The resolution was called forth by a call signed by a few obscure individuals at Fort Smith for the purpose of inaugurating a new State government.

The Legislature is still unable to elect a U S Senator.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 23.

Robert Ould visited Jeff Davis today, as also did some of the ministers who are attending the Conference at Norfolk.

Davis is described as being remarkably cheerful and healthy.

The Adams Express Company is kept busy forwarding packages to Davis from his sympathizers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.

Three thousand mineral specimens have been collected for the Paris Exposition next year. The project for sending a section of the big tree of Calaveras to the Exposition has been nearly abandoned.

The following message—signed by Gov. Low, the State Comptroller, the Auditor, Attorney General and Adjutant General—was transmitted by telegraph today to the California delegation in Congress:

"The appointment of John Bigler as Assessor of Internal Revenue at Sacramento is exceedingly distasteful to all Union men.—Cannot the President be induced to rescind it? If he will not, prevail upon the Secretary of the Treasury to delay the organization of affairs under Bigler. Any other course will throw the district into confusion, as none but rebels will serve under Bigler."

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 23.

The steamer Merrimac, from New Orleans 17th for New York, arrived last night with the 36th regiment of U S colored troops on board. They will be mustered out at this point.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.

J S M Gibson, a Pennsylvania Railroad contractor, has just been committed to prison in default of $10,000 bail on the charge of embezzling fares collected by him. An extended investigation, made under the supervision of Allen Pinkerton a detective of Chicago, shows that many conductors on this road are defaulters, and the company intend prosecuting them. Numerous discharges of conductors have recently taken place.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.

Admiral French Forest, formerly of the U S navy and late of the rebel navy, died here yesterday, aged 71.

The conservative army and navy union, at a meeting last night, after warm discussion, passed by a two-third vote a series of resolutions declaring that the proposed constitutional amendment ought to be rejected, and that in the judgment of that organization it was clearly the duty of the conservative press throughout the country to appeal to the Northern and Southern States to extend suffrage to the negro on such qualified basis as may be deemed proper and just.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.

The Commercial says:

The panic in Wall street seems to have spent its force.

Government has offered to receive compound notes at par and interest in payment of obligations due from banks to the treasury. This will save national bank depositaries, and at the same time enable the government to retire a portion of this class of obligations, so that arrangement is doubly advantageous.

The announcement of this purpose had the effect of immediately relieving the stringency at the banks, and is generally construed as meaning an end to the panic. The absence of failures also had an assuring effect. Money is flowing hither from the interior.—Gold is firmer. The stock market opened dull, but when it became known that the government had came to the relief, prices advanced.

[By Cable to Associated Press.]

London, 21st. Lord Stanley, in reply to the letter in regard to the ships seized by the United States government, points out that no arrangement can be made to consider such claims.

Pesth, 21st. The Hungarian Diet met today. The Imperial rescript was received and read. It declares that if the Diet will remove the difficulties in the way of unity, a Hungarian Minister will be appointed and the autonomy of Hungary re-established.

Liverpool, 21st. The breadstuffs market is firmer at an advance. Wheat is quoted at 38s 9d.

Queenstown, 21st. The steamship City of Manchester, from New York 7th, touched at this port this p. m., and proceeded to Liverpool.

Southampton, 21st. Steamship Deutschland, from New York 10th, has arrived.

Berlin, 21st. There is a report that the King of Prussia has written a letter to the Pope, offering him the protection of Prussia.

A man in Lewisburg, Preble county Ohio, having died of delirium tremens, his wife brought suit for damages against two men of whom he had been accustomed to buy liquor. The County Court awarded her $500 from one of the men, and $200 from the other.

THE AWFUL HURRICANE AT NASSAU.—Mr. Smith, second mate of the brig Concord of Bath, has, written a letter to the Brunswick Telegraph dated at Nassau, describing the effects of the hurricane that occurred two months since upon shipping, and especially upon Nassau where he arrived in the Concord with nearly every rag of canvas gone, and loss of masts &c. He says:—

There are about a dozen vessels here in port, all worse off then we are: there are two ships and one barque with mainmast gone to the decks; brigs with nothing above the rail, and smaller vessels all torn to pieces, which attest to the fearful violence of the hurricane. We hear every day of vessels ashore and lost around the Banks here. There were about 250 small vessels belonging to this port, totally or partially destroyed.

And you ought to see this town! Churches, dwelling houses, stores, &c.,—everything blown down in a mess together. There is hardly a tree standing; cocoa nut, orange, bananna trees, all torn up by the roots. I don't know but what the destruction is more complete to this town than was the Portland fire to that city. I hear of the same general destruction on the neighboring islands.

Everything in the harbor, during the hurricane, was blown ashore, including one English man-of-war.

The water was five feet in the streets here, and I hear of one quite large vessel that was washed nine miles into the country.

In another letter, speaking of the result in Nassau, he says;

I tell them it is a just retribution sent to them for lending their aid to the enemies of our country during the war, and I see that all the more ignorant class believe it to be so; and not only they, but also a great many of the more enlightened and educated. It is a noticable fact that those who were engaged in the blockade running business the most largely, and made the greatest amount of money by it here, are the heaviest losers. You may not believe it, but it is even so. The Bishop even preached it from his pulpit. And this agrees with my belief precisely. I think that every one who does anything so outrageously wicked as they have done, will get his punishment before he, and every one else, dies.

REMARKABLE PRESENTIMENTS. Last week Friday Mr. J. D. Seaver of Stowe, Sheriff of Lamoille county, was fatally injured. It seems there was a horse trot at Morristown in which he and a Mr. Gilman were parties. Seaver's rig was overturned by his running into Gilman's, when Mr. Seaver was dragged about thirty rods and badly mangled, especially about the head.

While at Montpelier last week, we heard some very remarkable statements made in connection with the death of Mr. Seaver, as stated above. We give them as we heard them, and can if necessary, name our authority. We understand that for a long time previous to the death of Mr. Seaver, his wife repeatedly told him that death would soon enter their family, and strongly urged him to purchase a lot in the cemetery—upon which, it seems, Mr. Seaver had been at work helping to lay out, etc.

On the morning of the day on which the above race took place, Mrs. Seaver told her husband that she had dreamed the night before that she saw him thrown from a wagon dragged some distance, and strike his head against something she could not tell what, and was killed. She urged him not to go to the race. He smiled at the dream, not being at all superstitious, and went. He however, seemed to be altogether right and just before the race, told Mr. Gilman that he would much rather not drive, but upon the urgent solicitation of Mr. G. did so with the above result. Mrs. Seaver upon his departure for the race, dressed herself as if ready for a journey and awaited, as she affirms, to be called upon to go to him. And she was. When sent for, she told the messenger before he related his errand that she knew what he had come for. All of which we give as we heard it and pronounce it very strange, if true, and we believe it is.—Vermont Record.

BURNING FLUID. The arrest of the New York distillers, previously mentioned in our columns, seems to have turned on the similarity of whiskey to burning fluid. The latter liquid, when intended for illuminating purposes, consists of

70 parts alcohol,
25 parts turpentine,
5 parts water.

But the stuff which the defendants were manufacturing was made up as follows—

75 parts alcohol,
20 parts water,
5 parts turpentine.

To turn the latter into such whiskey as is sold "to people who drink standing up," as a foreigner would say, seemed to the commissioners acting for the Treasury Department a very easy matter. Hence the arrest.

The investigation is still going on.—Boston Adv.

A BRILLIANT MERCANTILE OPERATION. Yesterday reports were current on the street that two merchants doing business on the same street in this city, but in different lines of trade, had been missing since Monday, and that they had left indebtedness amounting to some $175,000. It is stated that a considerable quantity of this paper had been worked off at as high a rate as 2½ per cent. a month. An investigation of their affairs was made yesterday, it is also stated, which disclosed the somewhat amusing fact that the whole assets of the two firms were nine pairs of spots and two hoop skirts—the balance of their stock in trade, as is supposed, having been "run off" to some other city, and sold by auction.—Boston Advertiser.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1866.

Reconstruction in Texas.

The following, recently published in the New York Post, from a correspondent well known to the editors and apparently endorsed by them, tells a singular story as to the disposition of the late rebels in Texas, and furnishes matter for consideration to those who believe in the safety of restoring these rebels at once to unrestrained power both in their own States and in the Union. The condition of things thus manifested certainly furnishes good ground for the earnest entreaties made of Congress by the Southern Union men (white as well as colored) that they be not abandoned to the vindictiveness of their mortal enemies, who are also the enemies of the Union—but that such conditions shall be instituted as will place the governments of the Southern States in the hands of loyal instead of rebel men.

The Post says:

A correspondent in Texas, who was well known to us, sends us the following communication, which we print at his request.—We should be glad to know more about the "Black Cavalry."

A DIALOGUE BETWEEN TWO UNITED STATES OFFICERS IN ONE OF THE INSURGENT STATES. Time, October, 29, 1866.

Mr. A—How are matters political in your district? Is public sentiment as bad as it is in this district?

Mr. B—Worse, far worse. The mass of the people have heretofore expected a new war, and have been ready to take up arms at a moment's notice.

Mr. A—Is it possible that they have entertained such an idea? However, they are as disloyal in sentiment in this region as they well can be.

Mr. B—They don't know how to be bitter here. Our folks are more intensely disloyal than they were during the war. They would have cleaned all of the Union men out before this if the northern elections had gone the other way.

Mr. A—So they would here. Our friend X. here, and several other of my acquaintance, had got ready to leave the country on the shortest notice, had the democrats carried the elections in the North, if, indeed, they would have been allowed to get off.

Mr. B.—Here, if they were quick, they might get off; but Union men could not escape from my part of the State. If the Union party had been defeated at the North we should have all gone up.

Mr. A—How are the freedmen treated in your district?

Mr. B—Badly enough! There is none of the army and no agent of the Freedmen's Bureau near us. I traveled with a planter in the stage, in coming here. I did not let him know who and what I was, but let him talk. He said that the "black cavalry" who he described as well armed, horsemen with blackened faces, so that it could not be known who they were, regulated the freedmen to the entire satisfaction of the planters. He said that this had inspired such terror among the freedmen, that not one of them could be driven from the plantation of his employer; they worked without wages, and did not dare to make complaints. He said that so far as labor was concerned, it was better under control than during the existence of slavery.

Mr. A—But this is not so in your region?

Mr. B—Yes. They have the Black Cavalry organized in my county. Not long ago a freedman, who had been my slave and who hired himself to northern men because he would not have felt that he was free had he not done so, met me in the road and told me that his hirer had not paid him, and would not pay him, and that he would leave him and return to me, as he knew I would set justly by him, were he not afraid that if he were to do so he would be caught and whipped to death by the "Black Cavalry." There are no United States troops near me. I could not protect him. The condition of the poor freedmen in my region is horrible. They say to me, that sooner than be as they are, they would prefer the potection afforded them by slavery. They fare worse and are less safe than when they were slaves. The last Grand Jury in my county was composed of good and loyal men, and they said to me that they did not dare to find a bill of indictment against a white man for violently maltreating or killing a negro. No bills of that kind were found, though more negroes had been beaten, maimed and killed than ever heretofore.

However, since the northern elections have gone right, I see a streak of daylight; I trust Congress will have the nerve to relieve us, and will begin the good work by wiping out every one of those sham state governments.

THE GREAT CORPORATIONS. The tendency to the growth of great monopolies, which get so independent as to be neglectful and defiant of the public interests, is commented upon of late by the Providence Journal, N. Y. Times and other papers, in a spirit not the most hopeful; but the subject is one which the legislators of our country should consider, with a view to find, if possible, the proper restraints for the growing evil. The Journal instances the New York Central Railroad, the Illinois Central, the Camden and Amboy, the Pacific Mail Company, the Express Companies united into one organization, with a capital of fifty millions, the the Telegraph Companies also united into one grand monopoly, as examples of this tendency, and most of them illustrate its evils. They fail (says the Journal) to properly accommodate the public, they laugh at reasonable complaints, they control and bring into subservience to their interests lesser corporations, and for the extension of their business, they rely not upon the fidelity and promptness and cheapness with which they perform their engagements, but upon the buying out or crushing all rival enterprises. Some of them have interfered in politics, and have used their enormous capital and vast facilities and their armies of employes in controlling elections, in which they had no legitimate interest, and no interest of any kind that was not opposed to the general good.

These papers profess that, with a growing apprehension of the enormity of these evils, they do not see the remedy. To prohibit associated wealth, or to put arbitrary limits upon its accumulations, would be a palpable interference with the laws of trade, and would retard the growth and development of the country. If men choose to put their money into a common capital, and to act together, they have a right to, and ought to have a right to. No mode of restraint could well be used to prevent the evils arising from this, without creating greater ones.

But the Journal says one thing can be done for the public protection, and legislators have been too neglectful of it. These corporations, chartered professedly for public accommodation, should be compelled to render this accommodation, should be held responsible for full and regular reports of their doings and their condition, and should never be protected from competition, unless in cases of enterprises where the public convenience requires the undertaking, and where the risk is so large that individuals will not undertake them or other conditions; and then the exclusive privileges should be carefully guarded against.

POLITICAL. The Washington correspondent of the Charleston Courier says that the President would have issued a proclamation of general amnesty before this if the election had gone in his favor. But the subject is still under consideration. Attorney General Stanberry has given his advice in favor of it, and other members of the Cabinet support it. The correspondent thinks that such a proclamation will be issued before Congress meets, from the fact that no individual pardons have been lately granted, and that Jeff. Davis's case will be disposed of in this way.

A Georgia correspondent says Alexander H. Stephens "never hesitates when asked to counsel the rejection of the Amendment, although he looks for dark days from Radical vengeance in consequence of the act.—His apprehensions are very gloomy." Well they may be.

The most remarkable instance we have lately seen of folly under difficulties is in the address of the Kentucky Democratic State Committee, which pretends to regard the fall elections as an evidence that "the power of the Radicals is rapidly on the wane!"

NEW YORK. Gov. Fenton's majority in New York by the latest figures stands at 14,701. The returns are not yet quite all official. The State Assembly stands Republicans 80, Democrats 45.

The official majority for Hoffman in New York city is 47,185.

IOWA. According to the official account, Iowa gave 80,000 Republican majority. In no instance have the candidates for Congress failed to receive less than 4,000 majority.—In general, the victory in the State has passed all Eastern expectation.

Religious Intelligence.

—Rev. Geo. W. Durell, formerly Rector of the Episcopal Church in Bath, has entered upon his duties as Rector of Emmanuel Church, Somerville, Mass.

—Rev. Samuel G. Brown, D. D., Professor in Dartmouth College, has been elected President of Hamilton College, at Clinton, N. Y.

—Rev. Mr. Parker of Southbridge, Mass., has accepted a call from the Baptist Society in Waterville to become its pastor, and it is expected that he will commence his labors immediately.

—Zion's Herald says:—"One society in the New England Conference reports $255-50 subscribed to the Centenary; but we learn that of this sum the preacher in charge gave $100 and his wife $100, leaving $55.50 as given by the church and congregation."

—The Bath Times has pleasure in announcing, upon good authority, that Rev. Mr. Beard of that city has been induced to withdraw his resignation, very much to the satisfaction not only of his own church and parish, but to the citizens generally.

—Dr. McCosh, since his return home, writing a private letter to a friend in this country, says:

"I am ready to testify that in New England and in other parts, including the West, you have been able to raise the working classes to a state of physical comfort and of intelligence such as has not been realized in any country in Europe. You owe this to the Word of God, to your quiet Sabbaths, and to education."

—Several Southern Episcopal Bishops and Lay Trustees are taking measures to revive the project inaugurated before the war, of founding a University of the highest grade, under the auspices of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Dioceses of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Tennesee, Arkansas, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas.

—The New York Observer, speaking of the election of two colored men to the Massachusetts Legislature, says, "from time immemorial they have been admitted to the Church Courts (Presbyteries and General Assemblies) without any qualification of their rights and privileges."

—The average salary of Methodist ministers in the Northwest Indiana Conference is $741; in the Ohio Conference $697; and in the North Ohio Conference, $584.

—Eight missionaries — Rev. J. J. Stoddard, wife and son, and Rev. W. B. Comfort and wife, for Assam, Rev. J. N. Cushing and wife, Miss M. A. Cottrles and Miss A. R. Gage, for Burmah—sailed recently from Charlestown, Mass., for their respective mission fields.

—There are 484 Baptist churches in Ohio, and yet there are fourteen counties without a single church of that denomination. The increase is rapid however.

—In Ohio and Illinois, both, the Roman Catholics are increasing rapidly. A recent Baptist report says there are in the latter State 450,000 foreigners, of whom 200,000 are Germans and 140,000 Irish.

ATROCIOUS AFFAIR. The Buffalo Advertiser says that confession has been made of a fearful conspiracy to burn a passenger vessel on Lake Erie. It appears that on September 24th the propeller Morning Star left Detroit for Cleveland, having on board four hundred passengers. When about 40 miles from Detroit the boat was discovered to be on fire, but the flames very fortunately were extinguished before any damage was done. One Henry Miller, a Jew, doing business in Chicago, was the owner of about $18,000 worth of merchandise on the Morning Star, and a boy aged about seventeen years was employed by him to set fire to the vessel, with the intention of destroying her, that he might get the insurance on the goods.—The boy made confession of the whole affair.

The New York Herald advocates the election of Horace Greeley as United States Senator. It will be about as effectual to Horace as being hugged by a bear.—Rockland Democrat.

An Effectual Worm Medicine

BROWN'S VERMIFUGE COMFITS,

OR WORM LOZENGES. Much sickness, undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The "VERMIFUGE COMFITS," although effectual in destroying worms, can do no possible injury to the most delicate child.—This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

CHILDREN HAVING WORMS require immediate attention, as neglect of the trouble often causes prolonged sickness.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS IN CHILDREN are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation, which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making Brown's "Vermifuge Comfits" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILL.

A Certain Cure for Diseased Liver and the many Dangerous Maladies which are caused by a morbid condition of that organ.

To give the public a clear understanding of the mode in which SCHENCK'S Mandrake Pills produce those wonderful effects which are attested by thousands of reliable witnesses, we present a brief and its functions, which will make the operation of this popular medicine perceptible to every man's understanding:

The liver is supplied with blood vessels, nerves and absorbants. One of the obvious uses is to secrete and prepare the bile. It likewise filters the blood and separates that fluid from all impurities. How indispensably necessary to health is the proper performance of this function! If the liver is diseased, it cannot purify the blood; and if that is sent back through the lungs, brain and other parts in a mobid condition, it must cause jaundice, biliousness, obstruction of the kidneys, gravel, and many other complaints more or less painful and dangerous, but the least of them quite enough to make a man sick and uncomfortable, and unfit for the performance of any of the duties of life. This unhealthy state of the system very often ends in pulmonary consumption.

The circulation of the blood is conducted in this manner:—The heart sends the vital current down through the arteries; it passes through the flesh, taking up all impurities it progresses; then the stream of blood flows backward through the veins, and passes to the liver to be purified. It is impossible to cure consumption, scrofula, or scarcely any other kind of ulceration while that important organ, the liver, is diseased. It is for that reason that "regular physicians" rarely cure consumption.—They usually begin their treatment with the use of some cough medicine, the basis of which is morphia or opium in some shape, which locks up the liver instead of relaxing the secretions, giving a tone to the stomach, and producing a healthy flow of bile. Dr. Schenck's will strengthen the system, purify the blood, and ripen and heal ulcers on the lungs.

A volume would be required, to give a brief account of the remarkable cures performed by Dr. Schenck's medicines, viz: Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills—all of which are accompanied by full directions for the use of them.

DR. SCHENCK will be professionally at his rooms every week, 32 Bond street, New York, and 35 Hanover street, Boston, from 9 A. M. until 3 P. M. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is five (5) dollars. His medicines are for sale by all druggists and dealers. Also a full supply at all times at his rooms. Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic, each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents per box.

Peace Hath its Victories.

To prevent or conquer disease is a grand achievement; and as surely as bullet and bayonet will destroy, so surely will HOSTETTER'S BITTERS preserve and prolong life.

This is the most trying period of the year. The stamina of the strongest yields more or less to the consuming temperature of midsummer. Vigor comes from every pore. The strength of man passes away in invisible vapor, and weaker woman becomes reduced and nerveless. It was to meet such difficulties that Hostetter's Bitters were given to society. Thus to prevent the evil consequences to which an unbraced, depleted, debilitated organization is liable, that they are recommended as a SUMMER TONIC for both sexes. Old people die of exhaustion every day, who might have kept death at bay for years to come, by an occasional resort to this powerful and harmless vegetable stomachic.

Nine-tenths of the community, rich as well as poor, work continually. If their hands are unemployed their brains are busy, and head work is as depressing to the vital energies as muscular toil.—But tone the system with Hostetter's Bitters and the wear and tear of business life will be comparatively unfelt even in the most oppressive weather. No languor will be experienced, for as fast as the vital forces are expended they will be recruited and renewed by this healthful restorative. As a summer Invigorant it is indispensable to young and old. Sold everywhere.

Life Insurance

Which is the Best Company to Insure in?

Is the Question now before the People.

HOW is this question to be answered? We say by the decision of the people, who have the best means of a thorough understanding of all the facts, and who by their personal action show their confidence by insuring in it.

The Connecticut Mutual admits that the statement that the New York Life does the largest business in Boston is without doubt correct,—but attributes this to the ability of the Agent. We know the ability of Mr. Russell, and also the intelligence of the community in which he labors; and knew that in financial matters the people of Boston are influenced by facts, rather than the personal popularity of any agent.

Commissioner Wright also resides in Boston, and it is from his opinion of the comparative merits of the Companies, that has decided the question in Boston.

The public are not so much interested to know as to the amount, but the manner of doing business.—as Mr. Wright has shown that the more business that is done upon a plan worked by the Connecticut Mutual, the worse for them, as it leads to "disaster and death."

The Massachusetts Commissioners report number of Agents in Massachusetts of Connecticut Mutual, 16;—New York Life, 4.

Is it not strange that among the vast corps of agents employed by the Connecticut Mutual, that not one have ability and activity sufficient to obtain even a tithe of the business among the solid merchants of Boston? Has not Mr. Ray, Gen'l Agent of the Connecticut Mutual, been longer established there than Mr. Russell? Has he not had the Massachusetts Insurance Reports, to exhibit the wonderful financial standing of the Connecticut Mutual?

We agree with the Agent of the Connecticut Mutual, that Mr. Wright the Mass. Commissioner, is the most reliable authority on Life Insurance in the country! Did not Mr. Wright, in his report for 1865, denounce a plan then worked by the Connecticut Mutual and Mutual Benefit? Did he not refer to the General Statutes, Chap. 58, Sec. 60, of Mass., and show that no company chartered in Massachusetts was allowed to do business upon such a plan? Did he not also state on the same page, that when agents were liable to boast of what could be done by that plan, the bribe for new business was made very tempting? Did he not sanction the publication of a circular in Boston, April 1865, with calculations made by him, showing the progress of the lean, and that any company doing business upon that plan exclusively, would present the condition of a bankrupt debtor at the end of the first year? Does not the Connecticut Mutual still issue policies upon that plan, and is not their business done in localities beyond the reach of Mr. Wright's report?

If the Mutual Benefit Company immediately discontinued the plan as soon as its damaging effect upon the reinsurance fund was exposed by Mr. Wright.

Does not Mr. Wright also state that the justly celebrated non-forfeiture plan of insurance, was originated by the New York Life, and is worked in conformity with the laws of Massachusetts, and is worked by them keeps the affairs of the Company in a sound condition, with a constantly increasing surplus? Is not the present financial condition of the Connecticut Mutual, as shown by the Wall Street Underwriter, January 1866, and other financial papers, a complete verification of Mr. Wright's statements made two years since? Did not the Secretary of the Connecticut Mutual, in an official letter to Mr. Barnes, Insurance Commissioner of New York, make this startling confession:

"We are preparing with all possible despatch, with all available means at command, the description of our mortgages as required by you. BUT AS WE NEVER CONSIDERED IT ESSENTIAL TO US WE NEVER HAD THE INFORMATION IN OUR OFFICE, and we have to send abroad for much of it. (See Report for 1864—page 67.)

It must take an active and able agent to induce the solid men of BOSTON and NEW YORK to insure in such a company.

Balance Sheet of the New York Life, Jan. 1, 1866.

Assets as above, cost	$4,881,919 70
(Market value, $5,013,449 06.)

Reserved for Re-insurance of all existing Policies, (valuation at 4 per cent. interest)	3,520,297 66
Reserved for dividends declared, including that of January 1, 1866,	1,072,205 88
Special reserve (not divided)	184,228 95
	$4,881,919 70

Will the Agent of the Connecticut Mutual favor the people of Bangor with the Balance Sheet of that Company of the same date.

Hallowell & Farnham,
Nov., 24, 1866. AGENTS.

LIFE INSURANCE!

WHICH IS THE BEST?

THE advertisement published by the Agents of the New York Life Insurance Company does not attempt to controvert the statements we make, drawn from the Massachusetts Insurance Commissioners Report, viz:—that of the four leading Offices the New York Life now

Issues the least number of Policies,
Insures the smallest amount,
Receives the least amount of Premiums and Interest;
Costs more to transact its business, and that their ratio of loss to amount insured is the largest.

The following Table is from the last Report of the Massachusetts Insurance Commissioners, universally acknowledged to be the most reliable authority on Life Insurance in the country, and all these statements are made by the Commissioners themselves.

Number of Members.
Connecticut Mutual,	29,425
New York Life,	15,508
Amount Insured.
Connecticut Mutual,	$80,220,371
New York Life,	$43,365,304
Ratio of Assets to Liabilities.
Connecticut Mutual,	144.30
New York Life,	125.28
Policies Issued in 1865.
Connecticut Mutual,	8101
New York Life,	4108
Amount Insured in 1865.
Connecticut Mutual,	$23,735,080
New York Life,	$12,883,709
Income of 1865.
Connecticut Mutual,	$3,858,210 73
New York Life,	$2,447,439 56
Ratio of Expenses to Receipts.
Connecticut Mutual,	9.86
New York Life,	12.65
Ratio of Losses to Amount Insured.
Connecticut Mutual,	91
New York Life,	1.32

These figures incontestibly prove that of these two Companies the Connecticut Mutual Life has—

The largest number of members,
Largest Amount Insured,
Largest Surplus,
Largest Business,
Largest Income,
That its expenses and losses are the least, hence that it is

"THE BEST!"

The statement that the New York Life does the largest new business in Boston is without doubt correct, and is solely attributable to the ability and activity of their agent, but the inference they draw that their large business there is owing to the superior advantages offered by their Company is simply an absurdity, as the real popularity and public appreciation of any Company is shown by its total business.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM THE JOPPA EXPEDITION. The Ellsworth American publishes a letter to Hon. S. Wasson, dated "Jaffa, Oct. 10th," which says:

We arrived here in forty days from Jonesport, after a very pleasant passage. I find the country much better than Adams represented it. It is now the dryest and most barren season of the year, but there is plenty of everything for food. There is beef, mutton and camel's meat in abundance, chickens and eggs, flour, beans, peas, coffee, sugar and milk, all very cheap.

There is nothing to prevent making money here, with a little American enterprise. The natives don't know as much about cultivating the land as a wild Indian. The American, English and French Consuls have given us all the assistance we need.

The Sultan of Turkey is also in favor of our establishing a colony here. He allows us to land our goods free of duty.

I forgot to tell you that I have seen some of those large flat-tailed sheep; their tails will weigh from eight to ten pounds, all fat, which will make about six pounds of tallow.

You can raise wheat, barley and corn.—Sugar cane is growing here in great abundance, without any rain or irrigation, and the people don't know how to make molasses from it. Oranges, lemons and pomgranites are growing now in the greatest profusion in gardens that are watered, and this is the second crop.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

—In Police Court yesterday, Geo. Allen for an assault upon —— Jones, was sentenced to pay $8.33 fine and costs.

The Police made a seizure of liquor from David Mehegan, and the Court having decided that it was intended for illegal sale imposed the usual fine of $20 and costs which was paid. Walter Dennis from whom a seizure was also made, appealed from a similar judgment.

—Our small snow storm of Thursday night and yesterday forenoon, afforded only three or four inches of snow, which, in the roads, was mostly trodden into the mud before night. The "bottom" is yet suitable for sleighing.

—Any gentleman who wishes to purchase a good horse is referred to the advertisement of Rev. Mr. Willian.

VACATION. The Fall Term of the Public Schools closes to-day. The Winter Term will commence Monday, Dec. 3d.

SERMON TO YOUNG MEN. There will be a sermon to young men at the First Parish Church by Rev. Mr. Rowland, to-morrow (Sunday) evening, services commencing at half-past seven. All are invited to attend.

—We have been requested to publish articles in favor of one of the candidates for Secretary of State; but we have no desire to go into the controversy between Republicans for that or any of the other offices to be filled this winter.

—Launched at Searsport, 22d instant, by J. H. Lane & Co., an A1 double-decked barque of 526 tons, called the "Augustine Kobbe," owned by James E. Ward & Co., and Benj. Carver of New York, her builders, and others of Searsport, and Capt. P. P. Carver, who will command her.

—The eastern correspondent of The Argus says that John McGuire, of the Gut of Canso, caught this season at one tide, 5000 bbls. herring in a seine.

—The Ellsworth American mentions that a sharp farmer down that way recently sold some Shanghai roosters for turkeys. The trader who bought them found a customer as green as himself, however.

—We have received from the Kennebec Journal office a published list of the members elect of the next Legislature, for which the publishers have our thanks.

—We learn from the Ellsworth American that Messrs. J. D. & J. H. Hopkins have purchased of George N. Black, Esq., Township 39 on Union River. The price paid is something more than one hundred thousand dollars. This sale closes up Mr. Black's lumber property on that river. His sales within the past two years must have exceeded $250,000. No. 39 is famous for its good lumber.

—The Kennebec Journal says that Rev. Alexander McKenzie has received a second invitation to take the pastorate of a church in Cambridge, Mass., and that he will accept the call and enter upon his sacred labors there in February next.

—A recent despatch referred to the fragments of an unknown wreck seen by the light keeper at the "Hole-in-the-Wall." From the description, the Belfast Journal thinks they may have been the remains of the barque General Sherman, of that port Capt. A. J. Russ, which sailed from Delaware Bay, Sept. 22d, for Galveston, and has not since been heard from. Among her ship's company was a son of Mr. Rust, of the Progressive Age.

DON'T VIOLATE THE REVENUE LAWS.—One Milburn S. Smith of Hollis, was bro't before the U. S. Commissioners' Court in Portland on Wednesday, for peddling matches without U. S. license, and ordered to recognize in $1000 for appearance. Also Amos Manh of same place, put under similar bonds or charge of selling matches without affixing stamps. Also Geo. Medamk and Wm. T. Cayvan $300 bonds for selling liquor without license.

—The police are making liquor seizures in Portland for violation of the State law—as they are in Bangor and other places.

—The Star speaks of a shocking accident to Mr. Asa Foss a Collector of Saco. He fell backwards into a tub of scalding water and was so badly injured that his life is despaired of.

—The potato starch factories are at work again. The Farmer says that the one owned by Messrs. Porter & Norton at Strong village, is now using 100 bushels of potatoes daily. They have bought 6000 to 8000 bushels at 30 cents per bushel.

—Hon. Elijah Barrell, an old citizen of the town of Greene, died on Monday last, at the age of 83. His name has been familiar for many years as a prominent Whig and Republican politician in that part of the State.

—The Lewiston Journal expresses a wish which will be general when it recommends that those most nearly concerned would institute inquiries so as to form the public who manufactured the impure kerosene oil whose explosive qualities resulted so fatally a few days since. The manufacturers of this explosive nuisance should be posted all over the State. If the facts in this case could be made known, both dealers and consumers might be enabled to shun, at least, one dangerous manufacture. Let the case be looked up.

—The Farmer cautions people against the danger of pouring liquids needlessly. It says: "We saw a man the other day who came near losing his eyesight while pouring some sulphuric acid into a vial. In consequence of something accidentally left in the vial, the acid flew out and into his face burning it severely. Fortunately, his eyes escaped destruction. In pouring liquids be careful to hold the mouths of the vessels away from you.

—Col. James Connor, formerly of Gardiner, died at his residence in Unity on the 12th inst., at the age of 85.

—The entire establishment of the Bath Sentinel and Times, daily and weekly, is offered for sale by the widow of the late proprietor.

—The Bath Times says the dwelling house of Mr. Samuel H. Lancaster, situated in the South part of Richmond Village, was totally destroyed by fire on Friday night, the 16th inst.

—The Argus correspondent says people are digging for lead on Deer Island.

—Walter Wells speaks of a region in Oxford county of so poor soil that a single grasshopper might look over ten acres of it with tears in its eyes.

—The Portland Press tells of an applicant for relief, who had nine in her family, and no husband. Investigation developed the fact that the nine were stalwart men boarders.

—Charles Pennell, at Whitneyville, was fatally injured on Saturday afternoon, while shackling cars on the railroad. He has since died, as we learn from the Machias Union.

—The Lewiston Journal understands that on Sunday, Miss Ellen Driscoll, a young lady of sweet twenty or thereabouts, while in an elevated condition of mind, threw a Hibernian lady of Auburn, down stairs, much to the discomfort and injury of the aforesaid lady.

—The President of the Maine Central Railroad Company will petition the Legislature to authorize them to connect at some convenient point with the Portland & Kennebec railroad or to extend their road independently through the towns of New Gloucester, Gray, North Yarmouth, Cumberland, Falmouth and Westbrook to the city of Portland.

COUNTERFEIT. A new counterfeit of the denomination of $20, on the Dover (N. H.) National Bank, having been put in circulation, the detectives of the Treasury Department have been working day and night to discover the offenders, and have secured the plate from which the spurious notes were printed.

THE REBUILDING OF PORTLAND. About a thousand buildings are in course of erection on the burnt district of Portland, or are under contract. One master mason has four hundred and fifty men in his employ, and the pay roll of all the hands in the burnt district amounts to $75,000 per week.

SUDDEN DEATH. We regret to record the sudden death, by heart disease, of Mr. Nathaniel Davenport, at his residence in this city, on Monday morning last. He was one of our oldest and most respected citizens.—[Hallowell Gazette.

The Steamer Katahdin, experienced rough weather last Thursday night and put into Portland, arriving there about an hour after midnight. Some of her passengers went forward by rail; but such as chose to remain by the steamer were entertained free of expense, and every effort was made to render them comfortable. In such weather as that of Thursday night, the passenger feels how excellent a thing it is to have such a man as Captain Johnson, experienced, always at his post of duty in time of need and always reliable, in command of the ship.—We acknowledge our obligations to Mr. Wall, clerk, and other officers of the boat, for kind attentions. This boat was never more popular than now.—[Rockland Democrats.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CASE OF SAFE ROBBERY. The Orleans, N. Y., Advertiser says:

Our town was startled on Friday morning by the discovery of a great burglary in the banking-office of Messrs. Stowell, Chamberlain & Co. The safe was a double one, made by Lewis Lillie of Troy, of the largest size, weighing many thousand pounds. The burglars obtained an entrance into the office by prying open one of the windows with a jimmy. In the lower left hand corner of the right hand outer door of the safe, which was two inches thick, a hole was drilled through which powder was introduced. It was blown upon, separating the outside from the bolts and inside casting, rendering it a complete wreck. The lower hinges of both doors were broken off. They next attacked the inside safe, which was two feet high, extending the width and depth of the inside of the main safe. This safe was one and a half inches thick, made with folding doors. They drilled another hole through the right-hand door in nearly the same point they had on the outside safe, blowing open both doors. This gave them access to the money and bonds, amounting to $25,000, which they carried off. The larger portion of this belonged to special depositors. They also took valuable papers belonging to the firm, leaving in their flight a bag of gold and silver, also a $100 bill.—This safe was made to order by Mr. Lillie of chilled iron, and was supposed to be burglar proof, as it was with a double safe, one inside the other, with Lillie's combination locks on the outside and inside doors. No trace of the burglars has been discovered.—They came well prepared with jimmies, drills, gunpowder, &c. The clerk of the bank did not leave there until 12 o'clock at night. The explosion was heard about four in the morning, showing they were expeditious in their work.

GREAT CROPS IN SOUTHERN RUSSIA. Our consul at Odessa writes, under date of Sept. 15:—The harvest is now nearly ended, and is considered plentiful, in fact bountiful—the best as to quality and quantity for many years. The new wheat is rapidly pouring into Odessa, and finds a ready sale at high prices for immediate shipment abroad. The price of wheat in American coin would be about $1 to $1 20. As England and France are largely supplied with wheat from Odessa, the fact is interesting to those engaged in the shipping trade from this country.

LIFE INSURANCE.

Which is the Best Company to Insure in?

IS the question that interests all persons who contemplate effecting Insurance. This question stands at the head of our notice; and all facts which tend to give the correct answer to this question are interesting to the public. We desire the true answer, and will use all the means within our power to obtain it, and thank the Connecticut Mutual, through their general agents, for so far noticing our advertisement as to institute the comparison.

They say—"In a recent statement published by the New York Life Insurance Company, they give a comparison of business transacted in the State of Massachusetts by four leading Life offices, from which they derive the consoling fact that they do the greatest business in the State." As they have honored us with the notice, we drop the other Companies, that the Connecticut Mutual may have the full advantage of the comparison.

The New Business of these Companies in the City of Boston, for 1864, was as follows:

New York Life,	$1,232,600
Connecticut Mutual,	174,500

New Business for 1865:

New York Life,	$2,362,700
Connecticut Mutual, (printed in our adv. by mistake, 31800.)	218,000

New business in the whole State of Massachusetts, for 1865.

New York Life,	$2,918,000
Connecticut,	1,030,705

These facts should be "consoling" to the managers of any Company. Would it not be gratifying if the Connecticut Mutual could exhibit the same results in the same localities?

Their consolation is derived from the fact that there are places in which they are doing a large business. If the persons in those regions understand the subject of Life Insurance and financial matters better than they do in Bos on or in the State of Massachusetts, would it not be interesting to name the localities?

Is it not rather from the fact that the plan of Life Insurance, as worked by the Connecticut Mutual, is not understood, that enables them to succeed?

It is known to all agents, and to none better than those of the Connecticut Mutual, that in a majority of cases the parties rely rather upon the integrity of the agent than their own knowledge of the comparative standing of the Companies.

Now that the Connecticut Mutual has been so kind as to make the comparison, we hope it will be full and fair, and to that end we will join in the examination of the Reports of the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts, with the statements and correspondence of underwriters and financial men, and the Connecticut Mutual may then perhaps discover why their business in Boston and in the State of Massachusetts is not as large as in some other localities.

The correspondence between Commissioner Barnes and Dr. Phelps, then Secretary, but now President of the Connecticut Mutual, was then generally circulated and well understood. (The correspondence may be found in the New York Reports of 1864, which may be seen at this office.) If these reports had been as freely circulated and fully read in all other localities as they were in Boston, they would probably have had the same results.

We will only add that in 1861, '62 and '63, the New York Life issued more policies than any other company in the United States;—that in 1864 and '65 its cash receipts for premiums exceed those of the Connecticut Mutual, and its excess of income over expenditure in 1865 (see New York Commissioners' Report, page 130) was $1,042,812 90

Connecticut Mutual, 953,837 69

Ratio of Cash Expenses to Cash Receipts.

New York Life 16.80, Conn. Mutual 20.52.

Losses in 1865 as given in New York Commissioners' Report, which was made two months later than the report quoted from by the aforesaid Agent:

New York Life,	$173,522
Connecticut Mutual,	668,112

We will issue, in a few days, a circular instituting a comparison, in part, and trust that, through the efforts of both parties the public may be enabled to answer the question propounded at the head of this article.

LIFE INSURANCE!

IN a recent statement published by the NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, they give a comparison of business transacted in the State of Massachusetts by the four leading LIFE OFFICES, from which they derive the consoling fact that they do the greatest business in that State. Of course it is absurd to judge of the relative standing of a Company by the amount of its business in any one locality, and the attention of the public is respectfully called to the following statistics of all business done by these Offices as per last Report of the Massachusetts Insurance Commissioners:—

	Policies Issued.	Amount Insured.	Premiums and Int'st Rec'vd.	Ratio of Expense to Receipts.	Losses.	Ratio of Losses to am't insured.
New York Life	4108	$12,883,709	$2,447,439 56	13.65	$508,850	1.32
Mutual Benefit	6208	22,033,199	3,182,317 37	10.52	587,925	96
Mutual Life	4820	17,115,707	3,499,451 43	12.60	674,954	97
Connecticut Mutual	8101	$23,735,280	$3,858,949 73	9.86	$600,472	91

From the above Table we gather that the New York Life Company has issued the least number of Policies of either of these offices.

That it has insured the smallest amount.

That it has cost the most to transact its business; and

That its losses have been the greatest in proportion to the amount insured.

We leave the public to infer "WHICH IS THE BEST COMPANY TO INSURE IN."

Mr. Nasby is Called to a Condolence.

Mr. Nasby in his latest issue, relates how he was called to Washington by our Patron Saint, the President, to comfort his wounded spirit. He says:

The cabinet meetin to wich I wuz called for the purpose ov shedding a tear or two over the election returns, and to consider a variety uv letters wich his Eggscellency had received within a few days. I may remark that the cabinet had a gloomy and mildewed look.

The fust wuz from Henry Ward Beecher.—Mr. Beecher remarked that he hed the highest possible respeck for the offis wunst held by the good Washington, the great Adams, and the sainted Linkun. But waz he desired to say wuz that he had a higher regard for the good opinion of the accidental incumbent iv any offis, and ez he hed, in a hour uv temporary mental aberrashen, wich had happily passed, indorsed the administrashun, wich insanity hed worked evil unto him, he requested, ez a simple act uv justice, that the President shood cause it to be known that he (Beecher) waz not considered by the administration ez a supporter thereof.

'I do this,' sed the writer, 'becoz the impression that I am in the confidence uv your Excelency, wich is unfortunately abroad, haz seriusly damaged my reputashen.'

Truly yurs, etcettera.

The reading uv this letter waz followed by a minnut uv profound silens, wich waz broken by the President.

'Let him pass,' sed the grate man who hez the dispenshun ov the post orfisis, 'let him pass. But here is anuther,' sed he, bustin into teers, 'read that.'

It wuz from Gen. Custer, him ov the yaller hair, wich hed sum reputashun doorin the was ez a cavalry commander. It was tu the same effect. He hed, when he sposed that the policy ov the President, which he esteemed ez he must any man who held the exalted posishun wunst okkupied by the good Washington, the great Jefferson, and the sainted Linkun—

'The ungrateful dog doesn't respeck ME,' sed Androo, 'it's the offis I fill,' and he bust into a fresh flud.

—When he spozed the President's policy was such as a solier and patriot could indorse, he indorsed it. But he diskivered that it led him, back foremost, into company wich, durin the late war, he hed allus visited face foremost and on horseback; and, therefore, to save his reputashun, he must bog that the President wood give it out, that he (General Custer) waz not, nor never hed bin, a supporter uv his policy, and oblige

Yours truly, as before.

I waz too hart-broken at this to make any reply, and Cowan and Doolittle waz in the same fix. The Kerneley wich waz given to Custer to keep him in posishen, had him promised to a Demokratik editin, who waz led by a company in the first Bull Run fight, and who threw up in disgust the next day, not likin the manner in which the war waz bein konducted, but now the Kurneley was gone and Custer too, and what waz worse, there waz no sich thing to be thought ov as desmissing him. The entire company yunited in mingling their tears.

The next epistle was read by Seward and was from H. J. Raymond. It went on in the same strain as the others.

'Good Heavens!' shrieked Johnson, 'that little fox ain't going to speak of his reputashun?'

'Dooty requires the reading of the dokeyment, painful to my feelings ez it may be,' sed Seward. He concluded thusly:'

'I am forced to ask yu ez one enjoying confidenshal relaishins with him who okkupies the Presidenshal chair, to hev it given out that I stand in opposition to him. A do REGARD FOR MY REPUTASHEN impels me to this coarse.'

Remain,

Yours trooly.

Two or three more letters are read, all of the same sort.

'Finally,' (says Nasby) 'we came to the seal uv wich waz a coat of arms, bull dog rampant, bowie knife couchant, supported by trotting horses, in field of green cloth. It waz from Hon. John Morrissey, who had just been elected to Congress from Noo York.

Mr. Morrissey remarked that, ez one uv the principle pillars uv the Democracy, he had a right to speak. He wished it to be understood that he wasshed his hands uv any connection with Johnson or his party. He hed seed a lite. In states where the Democracy, uv which he waz a pillar, hed tied themselves to Johnson they hed gone down to a premature grave. Respeck for the high offis restrained him from saying that the Democracy coud not carry such a cussed load, but he would say that the result uv the election in Noo York, where they depended solely on nigger and muscle, which is the real Democratic capital, and succeeded, while what the Democracy waz loaded down with the Johnsonianism they failed, satisfied him that the President was a inkubus. He sed this with all de respeck for the offis. Mr. Morrissey further remarked that he hed also personal reasons for makin this request. He commenced in a humble position, and hed filled the publick eye long enuff to satisfy his modest ambishen—he had wolloped Sullivan and Heenan—he had owned the fastest horses and won more money at faro than any man in Amerika. His ambition was satisfied so far ez he waz concerned, but he hoped to leave behind him fur his infantsun, (wich waz only twelve years uv age, and hed a development ov intelect and muscle remarkable fur one so tender, bein already walloped every boy in the skule to which he was a coin,) he desired to leave that sun an honorable name. It hed been given out that he was a supporter uv the individule who occupied the Presidenshal offis, and it wuz injorin him. He wished that stigma removed—a regard for his reputation forced him to insist upon it. And this wuz duly signed,

There wuz silence in the Cabinet, and ez I turned my tear dewed eyes I saw the grate drops coursin down the cheeks uv every one present. Mr. Seward retired without sayin anything about nineto days, and one by one they all departed.

A tall Yankee was riding a diminutive specimen of the donkey tribe through the muddy streets of Gotham; and the animal being very stubborn, Jonathan found it quite difficult to induce him to accelerate his pace. Helused the persuasive eloquence of a hickory stick, however, and at each blow he would drawl out, "Git up, Bonypart; git up, I say!"

A little Frenchman, in passing, heard, with rage, the name of his illustrious countryman applied to the ugly beast, and commenced heaping a volley of abuse on the head of the offending Yankee.

"Sair," shouted the Gaul, "vo for you sall call zat ugly beast Napoleon? By gar, sair, I shall have ze grande satisfaction!"

"Gitup, Bonypart!" was the only response.

"Sacre! monsieur, sair! I say what for you call zat vagabone horse Napoleon?"

"Git up, Bonypart!"

Here the Frenchman's rage boiled over and stamping his feet upon the pavement, he screamed:

"Oh, by gar, I shall have ze grande satisfaction! I shall have ze revenge. I have one lettle sheep dog at my house; I go call him Guillaume Washington, by gar!"

Little Jennie is a fowr year old, with a decided repugnance to keeping still or doing anything she may happen to think she does not like to do. She is very much given to mimicking the airs of the prim young ladies by acting "proper" on all occasions. Her mother was about making a visit to an absent sister and designed having Miss Jennie accompany her. So she says:

"Now, Jennie, when we get to Aunt Clara's I want you to be a good little girl and not act so rude as you do at home."

"Ma," says Jennie in sober earnest, "how long are you going to stay at aunt's?"

"About a week, I think," says her mother."

"Well," says Miss Jennie, very decidedly, "if I have got to behave myself a whole week I shant go!"

And sure enough, she did not go. The sacrifice was evidently too great.

A Persian merchant, complaining heavily of some unjust sentence, was told by the judge to go to the Cadi. "But the Cadi is your uncle," urged the plaintiff. "Then you cad go to the Grand Vizier." "But his secretary is your cousin." "Then you may go to the Sultan." "But his favorite Sultana is your niece." Well, then go the devil!"

"Ah, that is a still closer family connection," said the merchant, as he left the court.

Rowland Hill rode a great deal, and by exercise preserved vigorous health. On one occasion, when asked by a medical friend what physician and apothecary he employed, to be always so well, he replied,—

"My physician has been a horse, and my apothecary an ass."

AtR—there is a debating society, at which are decided all matters of pith and moment. At one time an educational subject was on the floor. Concerning the causes of irregular attendance at school, one member held the following views: "Many parents have no children, and don't care whether they are at school or not!"

It is the fashion in California for gentlemen to take their families to the country and camp out for a month. They pitch their tents and lead a sort of Gipsy life, shooting, hunting, fishing and cooking. There are any number of ladies who can handle a double-barrel with effect, and bring down their birds with the nonchalance of old sportsmen

THE "INDUSTRY" OF A BRIGAND.—Lefteri, the famous brigand, has made his fortunes and now desires to make his peace with the Porte. He has proposed to quit the country if he may be allowed to do so with his "property," taking refuge in Hellas, where he proposes to enjoy the fruits of his industry as a good subject to King George.

HOW PARIS IS IMPROVED.—Baron Haussmann has just ejected the proprietors of no less than thirty-one houses, which latter are to be demolished in order to widen the Rue du Temple, and to enlarge the squares of the Chateau d'Eau. The landlords of these tenements are to receive a compensation of 14,571,282 francs, and the tenants 7,128,480 francs, which constitute a total of 21,696,762 francs. This in American money represents a sum of $4,250,000! A single haberdasher's shop is to receive $60,000; a clockmaker, $35,000; a toy-shop nearly $20,000, and a stationer $15,000; a pork butcher $20,000, and the Bouillon Duval, or soup restaurant for the working classes, $60,000, which latter sum (says a correspondent) proves the immense service rendered to artisans and mechanics by these admirably-managed eating-houses, where a bowl of the best and most nutritious soup can be had for six sous—than which no cook could make better.

THE CAPRICE OF FASHION. Lyons, France, is in great distress, because the world no longer buys her figured silks. In 1858 she exported $17,000,000 worth, but in 1865 she exported but 1,400,000. Her people, thrown out of employment on account of the caprice of fashion, are in a condition of extreme suffering. Having exhausted all the charity of her own people, Lyons begs the world to return to its former tastes and wear again the figured silks. This is echoed in Paris, and that the ladies there, who lead the world, can resist the tale of woe from their suffering countrymen and women is scarcely to be supposed. Their journals urge a return to the figured silks, and Eugenie's dressmaker will probably settle the question by going back to the styles of the last decade.

A SINGULAR FORMALITY. Galignani describes a singular formality with which executions in Spain are accompanied. After the executioner has performed his office, he is surrounded by gendarmes, loaded with chains and taken to prison, and thence before an examining magistrate, when the following dialogue takes place:—You are accused of having taken the life of a man. "Yes," answeres the executioner, "it is true." "What was your motive for the crime?" "To obey the law and fulfil the mission confided to me by justice." An indictment is then drawn up, and on the following day the man is taken before the tribunal, which immediately pronounces an acquittal, and the prisoner is liberated after his confinement of twenty-four hours.

Madame Zadoc Porter's Balsam is a HURELY VEGETABLE EXPECTORANT, prepared with great care and scientific skill, from a combination of the best remedies the vegetable kingdom affords.

Its remedial qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the Blood through the Lungs.

Ritchie's Liquid Compass!

THE Ritchie Compass which has been the standard Compass in the navy for upwards of four years, and also in extensive use in the merchant service, should be used on every class of vessels where a compass is to be depended on. It combines all the qualities of a perfect instrument. To extreme sensitiveness and perfect steadiness is added a strength and durability which prevents them from getting out of order like other compasses. The reason for this is apparent to anyone upon examination. A single trial of this compass has always resulted in its adoption and the introduction of every other kind.

SNOW POWDER

Patented May 29, 1866.

This is an article for washing without rubbing, except in very dirty places, which will require a very slight rub, and unlike other preparations offered for a like purpose, will not RUT THE CLOTHES, but will leave them much WHITER than ordinary methods, without the usual wear and tear.

It removes grease spots as if by magic, and softens the dirt by soaking, so that rinsing will in ordinary cases entirely remove it.

It is powder is prepared in accordance with chemical science, and upon a process peculiar to itself, which is secured by Letter Patent. It has been in use for more than a year, and has proved itself an universal favorite wherever it has been used.—Among the advantages claimed are the following, viz:—

It saves all the expense of soap usually used on cotton and linen goods.

It saves most of the labor of rubbing, and wear and tear.

Also, for cleaning windows it is unsurpassed.—With one quarter the time and labor usually required it imparts a beautiful gloss and lustre, much superior to any other made. No water required except to moisten the powder.

Directions with each package.

And can be readily appreciated by a single trial. The cost of washing for a family of five or six persons will not exceed TEN CENTS.

The manufacturers of this powder are aware that many useless compounds have been introduced to the public which have rotted the cloth, or failed in removing the dirt, but knowing the intrinsic excellence of this article, they confidently proclaim it as being adapted to meet a demand which has long existed, and which has heretofore remained unsupplied.

"PEERLESS," FOR COAL OR WOOD.

THE "PEERLESS" has all the advantages of the popular stoves in use, together with such NEW FEATURES as justify the manufacturers in calling it the BEST COOKING STOVE in the market.

It is the "PEERLESS," because it is superior to all other Cooking Stoves in Economy, Simplicity, Cleanliness, Baking, Roasting and Beauty.

1st, ECONOMY. A patented method of heating the air and conveying it through the oven, saves from twenty to thirty per cent. of fuel.

2d, SIMPLICITY. It is easily managed. The fire can be perfectly controlled, and kept through an entire season without relinding.

3d, CLEANLINESS. No dust escapes while shaking or dumping the grate.

4th, BAKING. Its large oven, wherein all parts are of equal temperature, bakes as evenly as a brick oven; and that without turning the article. It bakes quickly. It will bake upon the oven rack quickly, evenly and well at the same time the oven bottom is fully employed in baking or roasting.

FELLOWS' ORIGINAL

WORM LOZENGES.

WE can with confidence point to FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES as the most perfect remedy for those troublesome pests,

INTESTINAL WORMS.

After years of careful experiment, success has crowned our efforts, and we now offer to the world a confection without a single fault, being safe, convenient, effectual and pleasant. No injurious result can occur, let them be used to whatever quantity. Not a particle of calomel enters their composition. They may be used without further preparation, and at any time. Children will eagerly devour all you give them, and ask for more. They never fail in expelling Worms from their dwelling-place, and they will always strengthen the weak and emaciated, even when he is not afflicted with worms.

Various remedies have, from time to time, been recommended, such as calomel, oil of wormseed, turpentine, &c., producing dangerous and sometimes fatal consequences. After much research, study and experiments, embracing several years, the proprietors of FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES have succeeded in producing this remedy, free from all objections, and positively safe, pleasant and effectual. They do not kill the worms, but act by making their dwelling place disagreeable to them. In order to assure consumers of the genuineness of these Lozenges, the analysis of Dr. A. A. HAYES, State Assayer, is annexed—

"I have analyzed the WORM LOZENGES prepared by Messrs. FELLOWS & CO., and find that they are free from mercury and other metalic or mineral matter. These Lozenges are skillfully compounded, pleasant to the taste, safe, yet sure and effectual in their action. Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M.D.
Assayer to the State of Mass."
